Please ADD the following paragraph at Page 4, line 26, immediately before the section title "DETAILED DESCRIPTION"

B' --FIG. 6 is a flow chart illustrating a method according to one embodiment of the present invention.--

Please ADD the following paragraph at Page 16, line 7, immediately before the first full paragraph:

B2 --Referring to FIG. 6, a flow chart 600 illustrates a method according to one embodiment of the present invention in which a product marker is employed. At step 610, conveyance of a product to a customer, before a final sale price is determined, is authorized by affixing a product marker (e.g., a sticker) to the product. At step 620, if a first override price is received for the product, then the final sale price is set to the first override price. Otherwise, at step 630, if a first override price is not received for the product, the final sale price is set to a default price.--
